Shawnee Mission South Foundation

Shawnee Mission South Foundation Operational Summary

The Shawnee Mission South Foundation is a not-for-profit Kansas corporation that manages a donor fund which has been established with the Shawnee Mission Education Foundation (SMEF). The SMEF was established by the Shawnee Mission School District in 1989 to "provide all Shawnee Mission School District students innovative opportunities to help them reach their full potential and become productive, valued members of the community." The SMEF is a recognized § 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt organization. All donations made to it are tax-deductible. The Shawnee Mission South Foundation has entered into a written agreement with SMEF to administer donated funds. The governing board of the SMS Foundation is responsible for recommending disbursements of funds from the SMS Foundation. All donated funds shall be made payable to the Shawnee Mission South Foundation and will be directly deposited to the SMEF bank account. Fund-raising expenses will be paid from the funds in the SMS Foundation Fund.

...An investment in our future.

Shawnee Mission South Foundation Mission Statement

The mission of the Shawnee Mission South Foundation is to enhance the educational experience of students and faculty at Shawnee Mission South High School by supporting innovative teaching, learning opportunities, and school resources. This educational fund will assist in providing an environment in which all students can acquire more knowledge, nurture their unique abilities and pursue excellence for the skills necessary in the 21st century.
